LONDON.

His MAJESTY's moſt Gracious SPEECH to both Houſes of Parliament, on Tueſday the Eleventh Day of November, 1766.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

THE high Price of Wheat, and the defective Produce of that Grain laſt Harveſt, together with the extraordinary Demands for the ſame from Foreign Parts, have principally determined me to call you thus early together, that I might have the Senſe of Parliament, as ſoon as conveniently might be, on a Matter ſo important, and particularly affecting the poorer Sort of my Subjects.

The Urgency of the Neceſſity called upon me, in the mean Time, to exert my Royal Authority for the Preſervation of the Publick Safety, againſt a growing Calamity, which could not admit of Delay. I have therefore, by and with the Advice of my Privy Council, laid an Embargo on Wheat and Wheat Flour going out of the Kingdom, until the Advice of Parliament could be taken thereupon.

If further Proviſions of Law be requiſite or expedient with regard to the Dearneſs of Corn, ſo neceſſary to the Suſtenance of the poorer Sort, they cannot eſcape the Wiſdom of Parliament, to which I recommend the due Conſideration thereof.

At the ſame Time I muſt with Concern take Notice, that, notwithſtanding my Cares for my People, a Spirit of the moſt daring Inſurrection has in divers Parts broke forth in Violences of the moſt criminal Nature.

Neceſſary Orders have been given for bringing ſuch dangerous Offenders to condign Puniſhment, and ſpeedy Juſtice; nor ſhall Vigilence and Vigour on my Part be wanting, to reſtore Obedience and Reverence to Law and Government.

I have the Satisfaction to inform you, that, ſince I laſt met you, I have concluded a Treaty of Commerce with my good Siſter the Empreſs of Ruſſia, whereby that conſiderable Branch of Trade is fixed on a juſt and ſatisfactory Footing.

It is with Pleaſure that I alſo acquaint you, that the Marriage between my good Brother the King of Denmark and my Siſter the Princeſs Caroline Mathilda was ſolemnized, and the natural Alliance between the two Crowns happily ſtrengthen'd by an additional Tye of ſo agreeable a Nature.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I have ordered the proper Eſtimates for the current Service of the Year to be laid before you.

Such Supplies as you may grant ſhall be duly applied with the utmoſt Fidelity, and ſtricteſt Regard to the Objects for which they are granted.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

The general Poſture of Affairs in Europe affords no Occaſion to lay any Thing new before you upon that Head. My Purpoſes are conſtant and fixt to maintain, on my Part, the publick Tranquility inviolate; and to ſupport the Dignity of my Crown, and the Rights of my Subjects. The Juſtice and Wiſdom of the other great Powers of Europe leave no Room to apprehend any Intentions of a contrary Nature.

The Humble ADDRESS of the Right Honourable the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Die Martis, 22° Novembris, 1766.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return your Majeſty our unfeigned Thanks for your moſt Gracious Speech from the Throne.

It is with the ſincereſt Satisfaction that we congratulate your Majeſty on the Addition to your Royal Family, by the Birth of a Princeſs Royal; ever mindful of that Divine Bleſſing to which we owe the Preſervation of our Religion and Conſtitution, by the Succeſſion of your illuſtrious Houſe to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms; and of the Happineſs we, together with all your Majeſty's Subjects, have enjoyed under their moſt auſpicious Government.

Permit us alſo, Sir, to congratulate your Majeſty on the Solemnization of the Marriage of your Majeſty's Siſter the Princeſs Caroline Mathilda with the King of Denmark, by which the natural Alliance between the two Crowns receives ſuch an additional Strength and Support.

We acknowledge, with the trueſt Gratitude, the paternal Affection and tender Concern which your Majeſty has ſhewn for your People, by laying an Embargo on Wheat and Wheat Flour, until the Senſe of Parliament could be taken thereon; preventing by this Meaſure the immediate and dangerous Conſequences, which would have ariſen to the publick Welfare, and, more particularly, to the Eaſe and Comfort of the poorer Sort of your Subjects, from a Scarcity of that Grain.

We ſhall give, on our Part, the moſt earneſt Attention to the Conſideration of every Means, by which the Evils of Scarcity may be effectually prevented; anxious to forward the gracious and ſalutary Purpoſes which your Majeſty conſtantly manifeſts, for the Welfare of every Rank of your Subjects. Truly ſenſible of your Majeſty's Royal Wiſdom, in having given the neceſſary Orders for bringing the Offenders againſt the publick Peace to condign Puniſhment and ſpeedy Juſtice, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, of our Reſolution to purſue and maintain Meaſures ſo indiſpenſably neceſſary for the Suppreſſion of Riot and Licentiouſneſs, and for enforcing that Reſpect and Obedience which are due to Government.

We gratefully acknowledge the Communication it has pleaſed your Majeſty to make to us, of a Treaty of Commerce being concluded with the Empreſs of Ruſſia. The Security given thereby to ſo conſiderable a Branch of Trade, by fixing it on a juſt and ſatisfactory Footing, is a freſh Inſtance of your Majeſty's conſtant Care and Concern for the commercial Intereſts of theſe Kingdoms.

Animated with the trueſt Sentiments of Duty, Zeal and Affection, we thankfully receive the juſt and wiſe Declaration of your Majeſty's Intentions, to maintain the publick Tranquility, as well as to ſupport the Dignity of the Crown, and the Rights of your People.

His MAJESTY's moſt Gracious ANSWER.

My LORDS,

THE Senſe you expreſs of the Meaſures which the Safety of my People put me under the Neceſſity of taking, during the Receſs of my Parliament, affords me the higheſt Satisfaction. I rely on your Aſſurances, that you will conſider, with Attention, the proper Means of preventing the Evils of Scarcity, and the neceſſary Meaſures for enforcing that Obedience and Reverence which are due to Laws and Government.

Your Approbation of the Treaty of Commerce which I have concluded with my good Siſter the Empreſs of Ruſſia, is extremely agreeable to me; and I receive with particular Pleaſure your Congratulations on the Birth of my Daughter the Princeſs Royal, and on the Marriage of my Siſter the Princeſs Caroline Mathilda with my good Brother the King of Denmark.

The Humble ADDRESS of the Houſe of Commons to the KING.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great-Britain in Parliament aſſembled, return your Majeſty our moſt humble Thanks for your moſt Gracious Speech from the Throne.

We deſire your Majeſty will believe, that we entertain the moſt grateful Senſe of the paternal and tender Regard your Majeſty has ſhewn for the Welfare of your People, by laying an Embargo on Wheat and Wheat Flour going out of the Kingdom, until your Majeſty ſhould have the Advice of your Parliament on that important Subject.

And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that your faithful Commons will not fail, agreeable to your Majeſty's Recommendation, to take this weighty Matter into our moſt ſerious Conſideration, in order, by timely and effectual Meaſures, to purſue the two great Ends, which your Majeſty's Wiſdom has pointed out, of providing againſt the many Evils attending a Dearneſs or Scarcity of Corn, eſpecially to the poorer Sort of your Majeſty's Subjects; and, at the ſame Time, of ſuppreſſing that daring and dangerous Spirit of Riot, which has of late too generally ſhewn itſelf in many Parts of this Kingdom.

It is with the greateſt Satisfaction, that we aſſure your Majeſty, of our unfeigned Joy, on the ſafe and happy Delivery of her Majeſty, and on the Birth of a Princeſs; every Increaſe of your Majeſty's Royal Family being a freſh Pledge of the future Liberty and Happineſs of your People.

And, animated with the ſame Zeal, we moſt heartily congratulate your Majeſty on the Solemnization of the Marriage of your Majeſty's Siſter, the Princeſs Caroline Mathilda, with the King of Denmark; by which the Union with that ancient and natural Ally of your Majeſty's Crown is ſtrengthened, by a freſh Tye of the moſt endearing Kind.

We return your Majeſty our very ſincere Thanks, for your gracious Communication, that a Treaty of Commerce has been lately concluded with the Empreſs of Ruſſia; which, whilſt it gives us Hopes of ſeeing that important Branch of our Trade continued hereafter on a ſolid and advantageous Footing, is a new Proof of your Majeſty's conſtant Regard for the true Intereſt of this commercial Nation.

It is with the utmoſt Chearfulneſs that your Majeſty's faithful Commons will grant ſuch Supplies, as ſhall be neceſſary for the Service of the Year; having the utmoſt Confidence in the Aſſurance your Majeſty is pleaſed to give, that they will be punctually applied to thoſe Purpoſes for which they ſhall be granted.

We beg your Majeſty will permit us to expreſs our higheſt Satisfaction on the preſent happy Eſtabliſhment of the public Tranquility; and the well-grounded Hopes we entertain, from the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils, and the Influence of your Example, that, while your Majeſty wiſely unites, with the Reſolution to ſupport the Dignity of your Crown and the Rights of your People, a true Zeal for the general Peace and Happineſs of Mankind, the ſame Spirit of Equity and Moderation, which animates your Majeſty's Conduct, will direct the Councils of the other great Powers of Europe to the like juſt and ſalutary Views.

His MAJESTY's moſt Gracious ANSWER.

GENTLEMEN,

I Return you my moſt hearty Thanks for your loyal and affectionate Addreſs. The Part you take in the late happy Events in my Family, completes the Satisfaction I receive from them. I ſee with Pleaſure the Continuance of that Zeal and true public Spirit which I have always experienced in my faithful Commons, by your early Attention to the ſeveral great Objects recommended to your Conſideration, and particularly to the Means of providing againſt the Evils attending a Scarcity of Corn, and for ſecuring the Tranquility of the Country. You may depend on my invariable Attention to the Happineſs and Proſperity of my Kingdom.

LONDON, NOVEMBER 6.

A Correſpondent of one of the morning papers, ſays, he has been informed, 'The Nabob of Golconda, in India, hath declared war againſt the Eaſt India company, and defeated their troops on the Malabar coaſt. That the Britiſh commander there hath ſent for aſſiſtance from Bengal, where all things are in confuſion. The enraged Nabob has an army of ſixty thouſand men diſciplined by deſerters from the Britiſh ſervice, and a ſtronger force than Angria was poſſeſſed of, under an Admiral eſteemed a man of courage, formerly a commander of a guarda coſta in the Company's ſervice.'

It is ſaid that ſome conſiderable preſents are preparing to be ſent to Senegal, to be diſtributed by his Excellency Governor O'Hara to the African Princes, with whom he has lately concluded treaties of friendſhip and commerce.

If our information is right (which we ſincerely hope will prove true) we may congratulate the public on the happy reconciliation of the principal and leading nobility of this nation; and it is hoped that the ſcandalous rapacity for lucrative places will be ſucceeded by a noble ſpirit of emulation and reſolution, in unanimouſly exerting their utmoſt abilities to reſcue the nation from the anarchy and confuſion in which the almoſt univerſal corruption and licentiouſneſs of the times, with the inordinate avarice of the opulent, has nearly involved it.

Yeſterday Sir James Grey, Bart. kiſſed his Majeſty's hand on being appointed Ambaſſador to the Court of Spain; as did alſo Lord Cardroſs, as Secretary to the Embaſſy.

The ſame day the Earl of Temple, the Earl of Chatham, and the Hon. George Grenville, were at the Levee at St. James's, which was very numerous.

It is ſaid that the Right Hon. Earl Temple will ſhortly be created a Duke.

We hear that the Earl of Rochford has it in his charge to requeſt the French miniſtry to take the proper methods for preventing the ſhips and veſſels of that nation carrying on a contraband trade in the ports of Great-Britain and Ireland.

NOVEMBER 8. It is ſaid that the late baniſhment of a certain popular gentleman (Mr. Wilkes) will be of the moſt beneficial conſequences to this kingdom, on account of the great fund of political knowledge which he has acquired, as well as the important diſcoveries he has made while in exile.

We hear ſome men of war of the line, and frigates, will ſoon be appointed on an important expedition to the Eaſt-Indies.

This morning was ſhipped at the Tower, a quantity of ordnance ſtores for Newfoundland.

It is ſaid that ſome new regulations will ſhortly take place in the High Court of Chancery.

We are well informed that a ſcheme is in agitation for altering the mode of at leaſt five millions of the national debt; by which means a conſiderable ſaving will be made for the ſinking fund.

This morning was married the Right Hon. Lord Mount-Stuart, eldeſt ſon of the Earl of Bute, to the eldeſt daughter of the late Lord Windſor.

The following propoſal for an equal Land-Tax is handed about.——The annual rental of England and Wales is eſtimated at ſixty millions of pounds. Suppoſe a general Land-Tax of two ſhillings in the pound on the neat produce of all houſes and lands, after deducting for repairs, to be paid upon oath by the tenants and allowed by the landlords:

Groſs Rental 60,000,000l. at 2s. per pound			£. 6,000,000
Deduct for building and repairs annually	——	£. 1,000,000
Deduct for collecting, at 6d. per pound	——	125,000
			1,125,000
The annual neat amount	——		4,875,000

A noble perſonage, at the head of one of the principal Boards, has lately declared, that no commiſſion, or money-warrants, ſhall be iſſued out without the approbation of the Earl of Chatham.—Such are the effects of a happy coalition.

It is ſaid a noble Marquis, (Rockingham) during the time of his adminiſtration, accepted of no ſalary, and on its being remonſtrated to him what a prejudice it might be to his ſucceſſor, he politely replied, he thought the honour of being firſt Lord of the Treaſury was ſufficient.

It is likewiſe ſaid, that a popular Nobleman (Pitt) has refuſed the perquiſite of 5000 ounces of plate, which is always annexed to the promotion of his office.

It is aſſerted, that there will be no oppoſition in Parliament, the next ſeſſion, but that a coalition of parties has already taken place; and that the Duke of Bedford, Earl Temple, Mr. George Grenville, &c. &c. have given their word to aſſiſt in all Meaſures for the publick good: That the relief of the poor is to be their firſt object; and that the buſineſs of the nation is to be executed upon an entire new plan, from which we may expect the moſt ſalutary effects.

It is talked that the Government of Tobago has been offered a certain popular gentleman, in the room of Lieutenant General Brown, deceaſed.

We are credibly informed, that John Wilkes, Eſq; ſet out on Friday laſt on his return to Paris.

LONDON, November 18.

It is ſaid that there were yeſterday above 400 members in the Houſe of Commons, and one hundred Peers.

Yeſterday Lord Camden took the oaths, and his ſeat as Lord Chancellor. At the ſame time the Dukes of Cumberland, Northumberland, and Montague, with the Earl Chatham, took the oaths, and their ſeats in the houſe of Peers.

Monday night laſt Major-General Beckwith, who hath lately quitted the Pruſſian ſervice, arrived in town from Weſel.

We hear that application has been made from Paris, to ſuppreſs the publication of the Memoirs of Count Lally, tranſlated from his original papers; the ſale of which was ſuppreſſed in Paris, by order of the Parliament.

NOVEMBER 13. Yeſterday at noon there was a numerous levee at St. James's, and afterwards a council.

On Saturday next the ſubſcribers to the 900,000l. to be raiſed by 3 per cent. ann. for the ſervice of the preſent year, are to make good the laſt payment of 20 per cent. on the ſaid capital at the Bank.

Private letters from Paris mention, that an extraordinary Courier had been diſpatched to Corſica, with orders for the French General, Count de Marbeuf, to obſerve no longer a neutrality with the Malcontents.

We hear application will be made on behalf of the planters of both Floridas, that healthy felons of both ſexes may be ſent out on tranſportation to thoſe colonies, where white Servants are ſo much wanted, that all kind of domeſtic employment is obliged to be chiefly performed by Negroes.

NOVEMBER 14. It is confidently aſſerted, that a noble Lord (Temple) declared, on an offer being again made to him very lately, of a ſhare in the adminiſtration, that tho' he declined coming into place, yet at the ſame time ſo far would he be from oppoſing any meaſures of public utility, that he ſhould be always ready to forward the execution of them to the utmoſt of his power and abilities.

This day his Grace the Duke of Fitz James, Grandſon of the great Duke of Berwick, natural ſon of King James II. by Mrs. Arabella Churchill, ſiſter of John Duke of Marlborough, will give a grand entertainment to the principal nobility, foreign miniſters, and gentry, at his houſe in Suffolk ſtreet, Charing-croſs.

We are aſſured that Mr. Wilkes came lately to England from France on the ſtrong ſolicitations of ſome powerful friends, who promiſed to procure him a free pardon; but as they were not able to accompliſh the ſame, it occaſioned his late ſudden ſetting out again for Paris.

Yeſterday morning the Sardinian Ambaſſador had a conference with the Secretaries of State.

They write from New-York, that a ſcheme is on foot there for eſtabliſhing by a ſubſcription a public accademy for the encouragement of the ſtudy of architecture, ſculpture, and painting.

Private letters from Peterſburgh adviſe, that a treaty of commerce is upon the point of being concluded between her Imperial Majeſty and the King of Poland.

Letters from the Hague mention advice having been received there that a crew of pirates, commanded by a brother of Angria, ſaid to be the ſame who in 1764 attacked the Speaker Eaſt-Indiaman, now infeſt the neighbourhood of the Perſian gulph, and had taked one Dutch, and two Portugueſe country ſhips.

They write from Toulon, that all the men of war building there, are ordered to be named after ſhips of the ſame rate, taken or deſtroyed during the war, and that the ſame was to be obſerved at Breſt, Rochfort, &c.

We hear a bill is preparing to be preſented to parliament, for ſettling the American duties and imports on Weſt-India produce, on an entire new footing.

We hear many petitions are intended to be preſented to a great aſſembly, deſiring an immediate ſtop to be put to the making of ſtarch from wheat. It is ſaid one ſtarch-maker only near London uſes 400 quarters of wheat weekly.

NOVEMBER 17. The following is her Majeſty's anſwer to the congratulatory meſſage of the Houſe of Commons, preſented to her, on her happy delivery of a Princeſs:

"Gentlemen,

"I thank you very ſincerely for this freſh proof of your "duty to the King, and your regard to me. You may be "aſſured of my always entertaining the moſt hearty wiſhes "for the welfare and proſperity of Great-Britain."

The following is alſo the anſwer of the Princeſs Dowager of Wales to the congratulatory meſſage the Houſe of Commons preſented to her Royal Highneſs on the marriage of her daughter with the King of Denmark:

"I thank the Houſe of Commons for this freſh mark of "their attention to me."

Yeſterday their Graces the Duke and Dutcheſs of Portland were at the court at St. James's, for the firſt time ſince their marriage, and were moſt graciouſly received; their dreſs and equipage were extremely brilliant and ſplendid.

On Friday arrived at the Gentlemens Hotel in King's-ſtreet, St. James's, General Lawrence, from Fort St. George in the Eaſt-Indies.

On Friday his Excellency Count de Guerchy had a conference with his Majeſty's Secretaries of State.

We hear the Hon. Hans Stanley, Eſq; will ſet out on Wedneſday next on his Embaſſy to the Court of Ruſſia.

On Saturday the Duke of Northumberland ſet out for Paris, in order to meet the Dutcheſs there.

Letters from Berlin of the 4th of November mention the arrival of Mr. de la Grange, a celebrated mathematician, whom the King of Pruſſia invited from Turin, to replace Mr. Eular in the royal accademy of ſciences, in that city. The ſame letters add, that the direction of the Lutheran ſchools is given to Mr. Anthony Frederick Buſching, doctor of divinity, and author of the univerſal geography.

They write from Jamaica, that Admiral Pye had ſtationed a ſloop of war, and a Bermudian armed tender, at Turk's iſland, to prevent any irregularities being committed either by our own people, or the French reſorting thither to load Salt.

Friday was held at Merchant Taylors Hall, a General Court of the Eaſt India Company, when a circumſtantial account received from the Governor and Council of Bengal concerning the Company's affairs being read, George Dempſter, Eſq; in a long ſpeech, concluded with moving, that the Court ſhould apply to Parliament to take the management of their affairs, under the conditions propoſed in the paper ſigned by the nine proprietors, when they demanded a General Court. This motion being oppoſed by Sir James Hodges and ſeveral others, a long debate enſued, at the concluſion whereof Sir James moved for the previous queſtion, whether Mr. Dempſter's motion ſhould be put? A doubt then ariſing, whether the previous queſtion could be legally firſt put, after a motion for taking a ballot upon the main queſtion had been made, the bye-laws of the Company, and the opinion of council were then read, both which confirmed the legality of putting a previous queſtion, it was carried almoſt unanimouſly not to put the main queſtion. This motion being thus loſt, it was then by Sir George Colebrooke propoſed, that the directors ſhould be employed to apply to parliament to enlarge the time contained in the grant of their charter, and for other neceſſary and beneficial powers to extend the company's trade. This motion likewiſe occaſioned a conſiderable debate, a motion was made to adjourn the court, which likewiſe occaſioned a ſecond motion, that the adjournment ſhould be next Tueſday; but upon putting both queſtions, it was carried by a conſiderable majority, to adjourn ſine die. The principal ſpeakers in theſe two debates were, George Dempſter, Eſq; Sir James Hodges, Knight, Aaron Franks, Eſq; Joſeph Salvadore, Eſq; John Nath, Eſq; Sir George Colebrooke, Bart. Col. Johnſon, Crab Boulton, Eſq; Thomas Rouſe, Eſq; —— Wellborne, Eſq; J. Steward, Eſq; A. Ramſay, Eſq; and P. Cuſt, Eſq.

Extract of a Letter from Portſmouth, Nov. 14.

"His Majeſty's order in council is received at this port for continuing the embargo on all ſhips and veſſels laden, or to be laden, with wheat and flour for foreign parts, alſo laying the ſame on malt and barley for exportation. In conſequence of which order, one veſſel that lately cleared out at the cuſtom-houſe, Chicheſter, with malt and barley, has been ſtopped, through the vigilence of the cuſtom-houſe officers of this port, and proper perſons placed on board the ſaid veſſel to ſee the cargo taken out again."

We hear that a bill is intended to be brought into parliament this ſeſſion, for preventing the uniting and monopolizing of farms in England and Wales.

It is thought a tax will be laid on ſaddle-horſes, and an additional one on coaches. It is computed there are near an hundred thouſand horſes kept within the bills of mortality.

We hear a perſon has invented a mill, which is to go without either wind, or water, or the help of any animal whatſoever; will grind as much corn as any mill now uſed, and is built in the ſame form with a water-mill.

We are informed that a Phyſician in the county of Norfolk has hit upon a ſcheme, which, he is confident, will not only free this nation from the diſtreſſes under which it now groans, but likewiſe render it more glorious and happy than it has ever been.——We cannot but obſerve, that if this be true, he deſerves a handſome Fee from the public.

Wheat fell in Mark-lane the three market days laſt week 4s. per quarter, and all other grain in proportion.

We are informed that Major General Stanwix, Colonel of the 8th, or his Majeſty's own regiment of foot, with his family, were the unfortunate perſons who lately were caſt away in the Eagle packet-boat on the coaſt of Wales.

The Sweepſtakes, Cole, who ſailed from Poole for South-Carolina the 4th ult. returned to Poole the 13th inſt. with the loſs of her mainmaſt, being obliged to cut it away, her ballaſt ſhifting in a hard gale of wind ſhe met with 400 leagues weſt of the Lizard.

It is thought a ſtop will ſoon be put to the exportation of proviſions from Ireland to the French and Spaniſh ſettlements in America.

A ſcheme is ſaid to be under conſideration, for erecting magazines of Iriſh ſalt proviſions in ſeveral parts of this kingdom, to be ſold out to the poor in times of ſcarcity.

NOVEMBER 19. Yeſterday ſeveral of the Canada merchants waited on the Earl of Shelburne, at his office at Whitehall, where his Excellency the French Ambaſſador was alſo preſent.

The number of legal brokers authorized to act in the city of London, were at Michaelmas laſt, four hundred and thirty.

NOVEMBER 25. Yeſterday the Earls of Holderneſſe and Chatham had a long conference with his Majeſty at St. James's.

A foreign nobleman, who, it is talked, intends to be naturalized, and to reſide in this country, has, within this fortnight, had remitted bills to him of exchange to the amount of one million five hundred thouſand livres.

NOVEMBER 26. Sunday arrived at Spithead, the Dreadnought man of war, Sir William Burnaby, and the Druid ſloop of war, Capt. Burnaby, both from Jamaica, and the Guernſey man of war, commodore Palliſer, from Newfoundland.

We hear that 16,000 men will be granted for the ſea ſervice for the enſuing year, including 4287 marines, and that 4l. per man per month will be granted for their pay.

NOVEMBER 27. By letters from Paris of the 4th inſt. we have an account, that no leſs than three Britiſh Ambaſſadors, who had been ſucceſſively appointed, were then preſent at the French court, viz. the Earl of Hertford, the Duke of Richmond, and the Earl of Rochford; the laſt mentioned had an audience of the French King, and delivered his credentials ſooner than had been uſual, and was received with the greateſt politeneſs.

St. James's, November 18. The ſeveral commiſſions, which lately paſſed the Great Seal, for trial of the offenders in cuſtody, on account of the late inſurrections and outrages in ſeveral parts of the kingdom, will be opened on the following days, viz. at Norfolk, Norwich, Berks, at Reading, on Monday the 1ſt of December next.——Wilts, at New Sarum, on Saturday, Dec. 6; and at Glouceſterſhire and Glouceſter city, on Monday the 13th of December.

BOSTON, December 22.

Laſt Monday Joſeph Andrews, alias Anderſon, on an information of being one of the villains that murdered Capt. Duryee and all the people on board, (two excepted) as mentioned in this paper the 24th of November, by the depoſition of William Harris, at St. Kitts, was apprehended in this town, and immediately carried before a magiſtrate, who, after a cloſe examination, committed him to goal.——He ſhewed great ſigns of guilt on his being firſt apprehended; but denied before the Juſtice of being concerned in the piracy and murder above-mentioned.——He arrived at Caſco-Bay in a veſſel from St. Euſtatia ſome time ago, from which he took paſſage on board a coaſting ſlooop for this town, where he has been ſix weeks the day he was taken.——Two days after he arrived here he cut off his hair, in order 'tis thought to prevent his being known.——Many of Captain Duryee's things were found on him and in his cheſt, particularly a Medal which he wore round his neck, and ſeveral ſhirts mark'd with the two letters of the Captain's chriſtian and ſirname.——He had been ſtuſh with money ever ſince his arrival, and a conſiderable ſum in gold was found on him when he was ſeized.

The new ſtone goal not being quite finiſhed, he was by a Habeas Corpus, moved on Wedneſday laſt under a ſtrong guard to Charleſtown.

CHARLES-TOWN, JANUARY 26.

ON Friday the 9th Inſtant, put in here, the Brig Sally, Lawrence Cummings, Maſter, bound from Jamaica for London, very leaky.

On Sunday the 11th Inſtant, put in here alſo, the Schooner Lovely-Laſs, Robert Graham, Maſter, from Monte-Chriſti, bound for Philadelphia.

The next Day likewiſe put in here, in Diſtreſs, the Sloop Suſannah & Sarah, Joſiah Smith, Maſter, bound from St. Croix for Virginia; and the Schooner Urania, from Boſton, bound for St. Croix, the late Maſter, Edward Groſs, having been waſhed over-board, on New-Year's Day, off Winyah Bar.

By Capt. Nathan Brown, from Providence, in the Colony of Rhode-Iſland, we learn, That a few Days after Joſeph Andrews was committed to Gaol, (as mentioned under the Boſton Head) he cut his Throat with a Piece of Glaſs Bottle.——Thus ended the Life of this Enemy to Mankind.

Charles-Town, January 16, 1767.

TO THE PUBLICK.

GENTLEMEN,

GRATITUDE being one of the moſt amiable emanations of the ſoul, the ſubſcriber with due deference and cordial reſpect, waits upon his friends with the compliments of the ſeaſon, returning hearty thanks for the great encouragement received during four years teaching; and now upwards of two years that he has had the honour of being intruſted with the tuition of the youth educated by the bounty of the South-Carolina Society: How he has ſucceeded in his endeavours to open and enlarge the human underſtanding, modeſty dictates to him to refer to the opinion of thoſe who have employed him.

I being regularly bred a merchant at London, and having had forty years experience as head book-keeper in ſome of the firſt counting-houſes in Europe, amount to a preſumption, that he who has had ſuch opportunities of ratifying theory by practice, may be properly qualified for a teacher, all my little fund of knowledge is heartily at the ſervice of the publick, to qualify youth for buſineſs.

DANCING and FENCING.

PIKE's DANCING SCHOOL, at the LONG-ROOM, in the Orange-Garden, TRADD-STREET, will be opened for the Reception of young Ladies and Gentlemen as usual, on Thursday the 8th of January, and continue every Thursday and Saturday.

The other Days he employs in teaching at the principal Boarding Schools.

Attendance is given at the same Place every Evening in the Week, from Six o'Clock to Nine, where Gentlemen may be instructed in the proper Address, the Minuet, Country Dances, or in any Branch of dancing they chuse.

He continues to teach the Use of the SMALL-SWORD, from Five o'Clock to Nine, every Morning in the Week; the Utility of which Method is sufficiently apparent by the Performance of his Scholars.

TO BE SOLD,

Much under the common Advance,

A Small STOCK OF GOODS, such as are usually imported. For Particulars apply to the Subscriber, at his Store in Church and Tradd-Street: The House and Stores will be LET to the Purchaser, if agreeable.
CHRISTOPHER SIMPSON.

N. B. The Goods have not been pick'd, by selling off at an under Advance.——Those indebted to him, either by Bond, Note, or Book Debt, are desired to make speedy Payment. Charles-Town, January 1, 1767.

THE Subscriber hereby most gratefully acknowledges the many Favours he has received from those Gentlemen who intrusted him with their Children's Education, and hopes for a Continuance of the same. He now teaches LATIN in his Grammar-School, according to a Plan entirely new, by Books without English Translations, being rendered both easy and beneficial for the Scholar; and to remove any Objections from the Publick, who may favour him with their Children's Tuition in Latin, he will furnish them with ocular Demonstrations of what Improvement his Scholars make, by the Performances of those now under his Care.——Besides the Latin and Greek Languages, he also teaches READING, WRITING, and ARITHMETICK; and proposes taking in some of his SCHOLARS as Lodgers and Boarders, at reasonable Rates, whose Friends may depend on their being well used, as well as improved in their Morals, and other necessary Exercises, during their leisure Hours.
WALTER CONINGHAM.

RUN-AWAY from the Schooner Polly, the 4th instant, January, a Negro fellow named Charles Palmer; who had on when he went away, a brown cloth coat, a blue jacket, a pair of thickset breeches, and Negro shoes and stockings; he is of a yellowish complexion, and about 50 years of age; is about 5 feet 7 inches high, with a mold on his right cheek, and had two irons on his right leg, and endeavours to pass for a Free Negro.——This is to forwarn all masters of vessels from carrying him off the province, as they may depend on being prosecuted according to law: And any person that will apprehend the said Negro, and deliver him to the warden of the work-house, or to Mr. Michael Dorman, in Union-street, shall receive Ten Pounds reward.

GREAT Encouragement will be given to an Overseer of a sober industrious Character, to manage a Rice and Lumber Plantation, about Thirty Miles from Charles-Town; or, in Case any Person, with a few experienced Sawyers, should incline to join his Hands, and undertake the cutting and sawing of Lumber only, it will be equally as agreeable. For Information, apply to the Printer.

Charles-Town, December 31, 1766.

ALL Persons having Demands on the Estate of JOHN LAIRY, lately deceased, are desired to bring in their Accompts properly attested; and those indebted to the said Estate, to discharge the same before the First of March next, or else they may depend on being sued without further Notice, as there is an indispensable Necessity of settling the Affairs by the Executrix; by whom will be sold at private Sale, three NEGROES, one a compleat House Wench, well known in Town to be a good Cook, Washer and Ironer, and as faithful a Slave as can be found; also one other Wench who can cook and wash very well; and a stout Negro Fellow used to work about Town. For further Particulars, apply to MARY LAIRY, Executrix.

THE Subscriber intending to purchase a Place nearer to Charles-Town, will dispose of his Plantation situated two Miles from Combahee Ferry, containing 500 Acres of as good Land as any in the Province, either for Rice or Indico (not one Acre in the whole Tract ordinary) with convenient Buildings, and in good order for planting.—— Whoever inclines to purchase, may treat with ALEXANDER FRASER.

In whose Plantation at Goose-Creek there is a strayed sorrel mare, branded 10. The Owner may apply to me.

On Thursday the 22d Instant, January, will be sold at publick Vendue, at the usual Place in Charles-Town;

ALL that valuable plantation, or tract of land, containing 500 acres, in St. Andrew's parish, butting and bounding north-eastwardly partly on land of William Branford, and partly on land of Mathurin Guerin; southward and south-eastward on Thomas Mellichamp's land; to the south-westward, partly on Thomas Fuller's land, and partly on the late William Elliott's land; and northwardly on John Drayton's land; and hath such shape and form, as by a certified plat made by Nathaniel Dean, in the year 1763, may appear; being late the property of RICHARD PARK STOBO, and sold under execution, by ROGER PINCKNEY, Pr. Mar.

RICHARD BEK[illegible]RD.

St. Thomas's Parish, January 1, 1767

TO BE SOLD

THE plantation whereon I did live [illegible] Road, containing about 500 acres [illegible] acres of which is cleared, and near the same quantity of pine barren; the other part is all planting land, has some thousand cords of fire-wood on it, is well known to be as good corn and indico land as most in the province, and the situation as pleasant and healthy; it is open to the sea, and within six miles of Charles-Town: The plantation is under good fence, and has two good dwelling-houses, with a very large barn, and other buildings necessary on a plantation: It is an exceeding good summer and winter range for cattle, and has some hundred acres of hard marsh adjoining the said plantation; likewise a reservoir of water, that was never known to be dry: The land may always be kept good, as there is great quantities of sea sedge brought on every spring tide, which may be thrown over the land with little trouble; and it has been prov'd to be the best manure.—For further particulars, enquire of the subscriber in Charles-Town, or of Mr. Daniel Legare, sen. GEORGE BARKSDALE.

WE the Subscribers have continued an Advertisement in the News-papers for three Months past, acquainting all Persons indebted to us to discharge their Accounts by the first of this Instant, January; and as it has had no other Effect, than our being obliged to discharge what we owed here; this for the last Time is to desire all those that have neglected to discharge their Accounts with us, that on the first Day of February next, we shall put all our Accounts into the Hands of an Attorney to be sued for, without Distinction. EDWARD DAVIES,
Jan. 5, 1767. RICHARD WAYNE.

RUN-AWAY from the Subscriber, a yellow wench named AMY, lately belonging to the estate of Mrs. Brown, of Goose-Creek, and is supposed to be harboured by some Negroes in Charles-Town. Any person who will give information of her being so harboured, or will apprehend and deliver her to me, or the warden of the work-house, shall receive FIVE POUNDS reward, from
ANDREW LORD.

TO BE SOLD,

A Very valuable tract of land in St. Mark's parish, containing 730 acres of Santee swamp, bounding on the south on Santee river; on the east on lands of William Fludd, to the north on the out-side of said swamp; to the west on lands now in possession of John Little; the whole as good land as any in the province, for indico, hemp, or provisions. Whoever inclines to purchase, may apply in St. Matthew's parish, to John Little, or to the subscriber in St. Stephen's.
SAMUEL RICHBOURG.

N. B. Good high lands adjoining of it, is for sale, which will make a very fine indico plantation.
